The Road to Greatness: Becoming a Great Place to Work

If your company is struggling with high turnover, low morale, and/or harassment complaints, you'll want everyone in the organization to listen to this talk. In this highly interactive presentation, Johanna guides participants through the three essential keys necessary for a company to become a great place to work. You'll leave with practical tools you can use immediately to foster great communication, a sense of safety and belonging for everyone, and a shared commitment to the vision of the company.

Lead Like a C.O.A.C.H.: Claim Your Seat at the Leadership Table

In this enlightening talk, Johanna Lyman talks about a new style of leadership that is essential to bring companies sustainably forward in the 21st century. She identifies the five keys that need to be in place in order to claim your seat at any leadership table, and how to cultivate these keys for peak performance, personal development, increased productivity, and highly effective interpersonal skills. This training has been delivered to specifically help women and minorities of all kinds develop their leadership potential, yet it is relevant to everyone.

Lead from Meaning, Lead for the Future

Successful leaders understand the formula for leadership success isn't just having the right job and leadership skills. This talk will help you take a deeper dive into the future of leadership. You will learn how to understand yourself better and align your leadership with the characteristics and traits leaders often miss in their quest for success.
